

Post-16 Transition Politics work!

Wider Reading (80 marks):

Read one of the following texts and write a 500 word book review on it, did you like it? Why? What did you learn?

- The Establishment by Owen Jones
- An introduction to Political Philosophy, Wolff
- The Blair Years, Alistair Campbell
- Fire and Fury: inside the White house, Wolff.
- The Manifestos for the main political parties.

Films/TV/Radio (40 marks):

Watch/listen to any of the following films/TV/Radio programmes and write a review. Did you like it? Why? What did you learn?

- Andrew Marr's a History of modern Britain
- The Thick of It: BBC Sitcom (WARNING: Language)
- Spitting Image: BBC Sitcom
- Yes Minister/Yes Prime Minister: BBC sitcom
- Question Time: BBC
- Any Questions/Any Answers (Radio 4)
- Newsnight
- Panarama Documentaries

Activities/Places (60 marks):

- Look on theyworkforyou.org and write an account of whether your MP represents you.
- Visit The Houses of Parliament in London, write an account of what it was like.

News/Internet (100 marks):

Create a scrapbook of news/web articles on British and American Politics. You might find articles on The Conservative Leadership contest; Brexit; Trump; the Iranian oil crisis and anything else that happens during the summer!

Feel free to consult Mr Fuller if you have other places/books/films or activities that you think would be appropriate.