Post 16 Bridging Unit for Btec Music Level 3 2022

YouTube is a fabulous place for Music, from learning new things about the vast array of language specifics to finding new rabbit holes to dive into. In this bridging unit you should peruse the channels provided below and write a brief review of at least three of them detailing what you found interesting. You should comment on at least one from General Music Channels and one from Performance Channels

(Minimum word count 1000 words – suggested word count 2500 words)
